THOUGHT-PROVOKING QUESTIONS BEFORE OBEYING THE GOSPEL

QUESTION	YOUR ANSWER
As you understand the Scriptures, are you now lost in sin or forgiven in Christ?
Have you been a student of the Bible before we began this study?
Are you now "in Christ" or "out of Christ"?
Who only can forgive and save you from sin?
Why do you want to obey the Lord and be baptized?
Will you be a member the church following your baptism? (Yes or No)
To whom does this church belong?
Do you understand that Christians have an appointment on the Lord's Day (Sunday) to break bread?
Where do you plan to be next Sunday when the church assembles to worship?
Are you aware that there will be times of discouragement in your Christian life?
The Bible teaches that a person must be baptized in water to be saved? (True or False)
Who forgives and saves a person at that time?
When you are baptized in Christ, what name will you wear to honor God: Catholic, Orthodox, Evangelical, Protestant, Methodist, Baptist, etc.?
When you become a Christian, who is the only person to represent you or to stand between you and the Father?
When a person becomes a Christian, who is his Lord and Master?
If there is a conflict between what the Bible says and what church tradition says who must we believe and follow?
Do you want some guidance in planning your personal Bible study program?
Are you ready – today – to confess your faith in Jesus Christ and be baptized in Him?
